WANTS ALIMONY John Daniell,

In Divorce Suit She Accuses Mrs. De Wolf Hopper, Who Was the Infants' Dept. First Mrs. Bergen.

Lillian M. Bergen appeared to-day in the Supreme Court before Justice Hall and asked for $1,500 counsel fee and $100 a week alimony until her action for absolute divorce has been tried and determined from James D. Bergen, the first husband of the present Mrs. De Wolfe Hopper,

Mr. Bergen is President of the James D. Bergen Cut Glass Company and a large stockholder in the Amercan Tobacco Company. According to his wife he has an income from his private business alone of $50,000 a year.

She was an actress named Lillian Pike before her marriage, but her stage name was Lillian Elme and she played with Gus Williams, Evans & Hoey, and as understudy to Mrs. Leslie Carter. She was married eighteen months ago to Bergen, by Alderman Bridges of Brook-

She names Estelle Mock, Mr. Bergen's stenographer, as co-respondent, and also accuses him of undue affection since their marriage with his first wife, now Mrs. De Wolf Hopper. Mrs. Hopper Mrs. De Wolf Hopper. Mrs. Hopper was known as Nella Bergen and was the daughter of Police Capt. Reardon, recently dismissed from the force by Commissioner Partridge. Bergen denies all the allegations. Mrs. Bergen says in her complaint he frequently came home intoxicated and was cruel to her. Bergen, in an affidavit submitted by Mr. Wahle, said he had given his iwfe 3550 since she left him, and that they parted on the best of terms, any difference between them arising because Mrs. Bargen could not agree with his daughter by a former marriage. He submitted the following letters received by him the signific as a proof of this isset:
